I. Program Report

Children (PK – Grade 4)

Spring storytime sessions are underway and going well! Our showing of Moana 2 had lower-than-expected attendance, likely due to a scheduling conflict with a school play happening at the same time. All spots for the Junior Bookworm Club for kindergarteners have been filled! The program kicks off next week and will run through May. We're also excited about our upcoming Speed Puzzle event on Sat. May 3rd, which already has 7 teams registered!

Teen (Grades 5 – 12)

Teen Game Day on April 8 had a good attendance of 8 youth. Marshmallow building contest is later in the month!

Adult

The Quilt Show was taken down on April 9. We had 11 attendees at the movie showing of Wicked. Writer's Group attendance remains consistent, with 10–15 participants per session. The Book Discussion Group continues to draw 12–18 attendees each month. The selected title for April is James: A Novel by Percival Everett.

The Alchemy Poets will host a public reading on April 24 at 5:30 p.m.

II. Upcoming Programs

See calendars and flyers for more details about upcoming programs.
